今日講道內容摘要 (Abstract of Today's Message):

Sometimes, when we focus too much on our individual relationships with Christ, we neglect to remember that our faith calls us not only to be in relationship with Christ but also with each other and the church. Our reformed faith is not about DOING. It is about BEING. Living out the call of Christ to love one another.

As we head into Thanksgiving week, there is much in the world that makes us concerned and worried. There is violence and fear. There is the threat of war and terrorism; poverty and illness; hunger and pain. But let us remember that Christ is our salvation that God is love, and that the Spirit of the Lord is always with us as our strength. Through that, we have a community of believers that support and love each other and it is in this relationship that we can get through any difficult time and feel the blessing in our lives.
